

STEFFAN MULLAN

Tenor

Steffan Mullan was born in Cardiff, Wales and studied at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London.

He started his career at the Maggio Musicale Fiorentino and subsequently at Teatro alla Scala in Milano, where he sang comprimario roles and in the chorus for over fifteen years.

He became a freelance solo artist in 2010 and later started performing on board the cruise ships of Costa and Crystal Luxury Cruises specializing in classical and musical theatre, making concert appearances on all seven continents, including Antarctica.

Also in 2010, he made his professional house debut at the National Theatre of Opera Tirana as Prince Sigismondo in the world premiere of La Vita è Sogno by David Tukiçi and returned to Tirana the following year for Calaf in Turandot. Other career highlights include Ruggerio in La Rondine at Melbourne City Opera, Alfredo in La traviata at the Atelier de L'Opera in Barcelona, Pinkerton in Madama Butterfly with Operaimas Sant Cugat in Barcelona, Turiddu in Cavalleria rusticana with the Salzburg Voice Festival, Radames in Aida with Opera de Sabadell, Cavaradossi in Tosca at the Opera Panamá, the title role of Il Fantastico Cavaliere Don Chisciotte della Mancia by Matteo Fania at the Teatro Sanchinarro Madrid, Riccardo in Un ballo in maschera with the L'opera lirica Tamagno in Turin, Don José in Carmen with North West Opera Ireland, and Canio in I Pagliacci at the State Opera Varna in Bulgaria.

A regular oratorio and concert artist, he has sung numerous works, including Handel's Messiah, which he performed with the L'Orchestra Nacional de Cuba at Teatro Amadeo Roldán in Havana as well as for the Vatican Concert Series for Pope Benedict XVI's birthday at the basilica San Giovanni in Laterano. Other notable performances include Britten's Serenade for tenor, horn and strings at the Sala Verdi in Milano, the TV-Gala concert New Tang Dynasty with Marcello Giordano at Carnegie Hall and a concert with Jaume Aragall at the Circulo del Liceu.

Most recent performances include the Brahms-Saal of Vienna's Musikverein with Virtuosi Brunenses in an Italian opera gala concert for Opera Classica Europa and 125 Anniversary of the Wiener Prater Wheel with the Phantom of the Opera. In November 2022 he staged all 20 songs of Schumann in his Ritter-Dichterliebe Projekt and the Liszt Petrarca Sonnets at the Borromeussaal in Vienna. Since 2023 he has performed regularly onboard the Riverside Mozart, performed all over Germany with the Johann Strauss Operette Wien and in May 2024 participated in the masterclass with Aprile Millo with whom he continued to study.

Mr. Mullan also sang and danced alongside Ewan McGregor in Cole Porter's musical Out of this World and took part in Franco Zeffirelli's film Tea with Mussolini, starring Maggie Smith, Judy Dench, and Cher.
